NATIVE AMERICAN PRAYER CIRCLE
MAY 15, 2022

Sharing

Everyone in the circle shares whether he/she chooses to speak there is no pressure to speak.

Each person's participation in the circle is a gift of value and is appreciated.

Circle members receive each other's gifts with respect, neither judging nor belittling the gift each person makes.

No person and the gift they share is more important than another. Each person's gift is necessary to complete the circle.

the Circle is a sacred space made up of sacred relationships. It is an altar upon which members of the circle offer themselves to the Creator and to each other.
